Pacific Science Council Thanks Resolution for the 21st Pacific Science Congress Okinawa, Japan

19 June 2007

The Pacific Science Association Council and Executive Board extends its congratulations and deep thanks to the University of the Ryukyus for the success of the 21st Pacific Science Congress (PSC-21). In particular, the Council and Executive Board wish to acknowledge the outstanding efforts of Dr. Teruo Iwamasa, President of the University of the Ryukyus and Chairman of the PSC-21 Local Organizing Committee; Dr. Moshin Morita, former President of the University of the Ryukyus and former Chairman of the PSC-21 Local Organizing Committee; Dr. Hiroshi Kakazu, Vice President of the University of the Ryukyus, Dr. Makoto Tsuchiya, Secretary General of the PSC-21; Ms. Kaori Kinjo, Secretary of the PSC-21, and the University of the Ryukyus Office of International Affairs. In addition, our thanks extends to all the members of the Local Organizing Committee, including Tokumasa Miyagi, Miwako Noguchi, Kunitoshi Sakurai, Tomoaki Toguchi, Eiki Senaha, Shigemi Kamiyama, Choshin Sunagawa, and Keiichi Omoto.

The hard work and commitment of all of these persons to the organization of such a complex meeting such as the PSC-21 was fundamental, and the PSA Council and Executive Board extend their sincerest gratitude.

The PSA also wishes to express its sincere and deep thanks to the Science Council of Japan, who provided a critical role in supporting the financial requirements of the Congress. We also wish to acknowledge and thank our partners at the Science Council of Asia for its critical cooperation in integrating its conference with the PSC-21 and thereby enhancing the success of the Congress.

The PSA Council and Executive Board wish to thank H.I.H. Prince Akishino and H.I.H. Princess Takamado for honoring the 21st Pacific Science Congress with their presence and for their wise remarks in their plenary addresses to the Congress participants.

The PSA also extends our thanks to the various keynote speakers, including Dr. A.H. Zakri, Dr. Shigeru Omi, Dr. Hiroko Sho, Prof. Calestous Juma, Prof. Leo Tan Wee Hin, Dr. Laura Liswood, and Prof. Randall Thaman; and to the keynote speakers at SCA/PSA Joint Symposium, Dr. Rajendra Pachauri, and Prof. Leo Tan.

The PSA also acknowledges and thanks the main organizing organizations of the PSC-21, including the Science Council of Japan, Ecological Society of Japan, Japanese Coral Reef Society, Japanese Society for Marine Biotechnology, Japanese Society of Tropical Medicine, The Association of Japanese Geographers, The Botanical Society of Japan, The Geological Society of Japan, The Human Geological Society of Japan, The Japanese Society for Oceanic Studies, The Japanese Society of Fisheries Science, The Oceanographic Society of Japan, The Zoological Society of Japan, and The Japan Society of Island Studies. We also thank the PSC-21 Co-Organizers: the Okinawa Prefectural University of Arts, Okinawa Prefectural College of Nursing, Okinawa University, Okinawa International University, Meio University, Okinawa Christian University, and Okinawa Women's Junior College. We also thank the PSC-21 Co-Sponsors: Japan Agency for Marine-Earth Science and Technology (JAMSTEC), the Meteorological Society of Japan, the Japan Aerospace Exploration Agency (JAXA), and the Okinawa Institute of Science and Technology Promotion Corporation. Finally, the PSA acknowledges and thanks the following for their support and cooperation: Okinawa Prefectural Government, Ginowan City, Naha City, Okinawa Convention and Visitors Bureau, Japan Broadcasting Corporation, Okinawa TV Broadcasting Co., Ryukyu Asahi Broadcasting Corp., Ryukyu Broadcasting Corp., Okinawa Times, and Ryukyu Shimpo.
